TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

23 After consideration of the record and on the basis of good cause, this Court
24 ORDERS defendants, and each of them, and their agents, servants, employees, 25 representatives, and all persons acting in concert or participating with them be, and they 26 are hereby, restrained and enjoined from prosecuting any and all proceedings and all
27 actions at law now pending against plaintiff or from bringing any proceeding or action
28 against plaintiff affecting the rights and obligations as between the parties in this action with respect to the personal property at issue in this matter best described as conveyor equipment located at 5303 Rosedale Highway, Bakersfield, California sold to California

Pipe Recycling, Inc. on or about April 13, 2007, or the promissory note for payments on such equipment executed by California Pipe Recycling, Inc.

This Court FURTHER ORDERS that:

1. No later than seven days after service of this order on defendants, defendants may file and serve papers to seek to modify or dissolve this temporary restraining order;
2. Plaintiff shall serve this temporary restraining order on defendants and their counsel by a means to accomplish service most expediently; and
3. Plaintiff may seek a preliminary injunction by filing papers and setting a hearing in compliance with this Court's Local Rule 78-230(b).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
